Reason for allowance

1. This communication is in response to applicant's 06/18/2009 Amendment in the application of March et al. for the "Protecting a network from unauthorized access" filed 06/14/2001. Applicant's amendment and response has been entered and made of record. Claims 4-5, 7, 14-18, 20-24, 26 have been canceled, and claims 6, 8, 19 have been amended. Applicant's argument and explanation with regard to the rejection under 35 USC 103 are persuasive. The claims have been amended to better point out and more distinctly claim subject matter comprising the invention.
2. Claims 1-3, 6, 8-13, 19, 25 are allowable as evident by applicant's amendment (Claims are renumbered as 1-12 respectively).
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The instant application is deemed to be directed to a no obvious improvement over the prior art of record. The improvement comprises a method of dynamically protecting access to a first network, comprising: receiving, in a system, a data unit containing a source address indicating a source of a data unit; matching the source address with information stored in the system; enabling entry of the data unit to the first network for communication to a destination device on the first network if the source address matches the information stored in the system and denying entry of the data unit to the first network if the source address does not match the information stored in the system, wherein the destination device is separate from the system; determining whether the data unit contains an identifier of a codec type that matches a stored codec type; and indicating occurrence of an attack of the first network in response to determining that the identifier is of a codec type that does not match the stored codec type, as specifically recited in the claims.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
